3. Management of unreasonable complainant behaviour

3.1 Introduction

3.1.1 Warwick Town Council is committed to dealing with all complaints and other correspondence fairly and impartially, and to making its services as accessible as possible.

3.1.2 Because of the nature or frequency of their contact with Warwick Town Council a small number of complainants or other correspondents hinder the normal workings of the Council. This may be because of unacceptable behaviour in their dealings with Warwick Town Council, or because of unreasonably persistent contacts that distract staff from carrying out the day-to-day work of the Council.

3.2 Unacceptable Behaviour

3.2.1 Warwick Town Council will not tolerate deceitful, abusive, offensive, threatening or other forms of unacceptable behaviour from complainants or correspondents. When it occurs, we will take proportionate action to protect the wellbeing of our staff and the integrity of our processes.

3.2.2 Any unacceptable behaviour at a council meeting is covered by the relevant Standing Orders for Warwick Town Council.

3.3 Unreasonably Persistent Behaviour

3.3.1 Our staff manage a wide range of work on behalf of the Warwick Town Council at any one time, using their time and resources to best effect. They cannot do so if an individual or group attempts to dominate attention with frequent, lengthy contacts and repetitive information. This hinders the consideration of other aspects of the day-to-day work of Warwick Town Council. When necessary, we will take action to restrict access to our service or associated initiatives when unreasonable behaviour of this nature persists.

3.3.2 An individual or group as referenced relates to a single individual using alternative identities, such as using a different email address, or a set of individuals that appear to have common or connected unreasonable behaviour pattern.

3.4 Warnings

3.4.1 In most instances when we consider behaviour is unreasonable, we will explain why and ask the individual or group to change it. This may take the form of offering a face-to-face meeting with the Leader of the Council or other member of Warwick Town Council. We will also warn them that, if the behaviour continues, we will take action to restrict their contact with the Council.

3.4.2 Where the behaviour is so extreme that it threatens the immediate safety and welfare of Warwick Town Council's staff or Councillors the matter may be reported to the police or the taking of legal action will be considered. In such cases, Warwick Town Council may not give the complainant or correspondent prior warning.

3.5 Restricting access to Warwick Town Council

3.5.1 Warwick Town Council will decide whether the circumstances justify any restriction of access. They will record the reason for their decision and explain it to the person or group concerned. They will state for how long any restriction will apply before it is reconsidered, and state how the decision can be challenged.

3.5.1 The sort of restrictions imposed could include:

A. restricting e-mails / telephone calls to specified days and limited times

B. limiting contacts to one form only (for example, a maximum of one letter in advance of each Town Council meeting)

C. requiring contact to take place with one named Officer / Councillor

3.5.2 Other suitable options will be considered in the light of the complainant or correspondent's circumstances. The objective of Warwick Town Council, wherever possible, is to ensure that any decisions to restrict access are dealt with in a managed way.

3.5.3 If a complainant or correspondent attends the public meetings of the Town Council and is deemed by those Councillors present to be affecting the normal running of the meeting then the Mayor will have the right to request the individual concerned to leave the meeting.

3.5.4 Warwick Town Council will review any restrictions imposed every six months or on the meeting following expiry of such a restriction order to determine whether they are still necessary and should remain in place or be extended.

3.6 Terminating access to the Town Council

3.6.1 If a complainant or correspondent continues to behave unreasonably, and overrides the restrictions placed on access to the Town Council, Warwick Town Council may decide to terminate all contact with them.
